Selected Titles from the

SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY

by Roger Brown, Harvard University

"Comprehensive coverage, bibliographic documentation, and concern for addressing contemporary problems, make this book an excellent text. . . . Because of Brown's breadth of coverage, Social Psychology does not speak only to social psychologists. Developmentalists, clinicians, social workers, sociologists, and many others will derive the joint satisfaction of seeing their work fruitfully applied in other fields and, at the same time, receive the stimulation of new concepts and extensions to take back to their own work."—From a review by Jerome Singer, Ph.D., Department of Psychology, Pennsylvania State University

1965 809 pp. $8.95

COMPARATIVE SOCIAL PROBLEMS

Edited by S. N. Eisenstadt, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

This comprehensive collection of essays views social problems as inherent in any social organization rather than as marginal phenomena. Among the problems treated are: individual retreat from social role, crises of life cycle and family, alcoholism, and juvenile delinquency. ". . . stimulating. . . . a careful presentation of excerpts from some of the most highly regarded pieces in sociological literature."—Sociology and Social Research

1964 464 pp. $9.95

A DICTIONARY OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

Compiled by Julius Gould, University of Nottingham, and William L. Kolb, Beloit College, for UNESCO

An indispensable tool for everyone concerned with the social sciences, this volume describes and defines approximately one thousand terms and concepts of fundamental importance in the fields of anthropology, economics, political science, social psychology, and sociology. The definitions are presented in the form of brief essays prepared by more than two hundred eminent authorities in the disciplines concerned. "This work is undoubtedly the best one-volume dictionary of the language of the social scientist available today."—Joseph Bram, New York University
